

ARBOL "YOU TRAVELLED MY HEART INSIDE OUT"

LEJOS DISCOS, CD

REFERENCE: LEJ 009

RELEASE DATE: NOVEMBER 19, 2007

Arbol's 3rd release "You Travelled my Heart Inside Out" is out now. Miguel Marín, aka Arbol, continues to walk a path that the enigmatic lushness of his previous work cannot erase.

Where a clearing in the forest of "Dreams made of paper" (Lejos Discos, 2005) forced us to linger over songs that poured down on us as a sudden and marvelous light before continuing on our mottled passage, the select track of "You Travelled my Heart Inside Out" opens like a delta to new and wide pastures, bringing calm waters to soak the feet of the city.

For this new release, Miguel has collaborated with Suzy Mangion, D-fried and the Japanese singer Eri Makino. It was recorded between 2004 and 2007 in London, Barcelona and Tokyo and confirms the crucial role played by Miguel Marín in the development of imaginary soundtracks as an independent musical genre. "You Travelled my Heart Inside Out" shows the influences that Arbol's music has been subject to in recent years as he moved between three completely different cities, three distinct ways of seeing music and life.

Track list:

you travelled my heart inside out / nomi / avio / 01_29 / my life is full of rivers and mountains / yume utsutsu / dreams / 00_58 / garda / maria is a bird

Please note Arbol's previous release: few copies left!

ARBOL "DREAMS MADE OF PAPER"

LEJOS DISCOS, 2005

LEJ 003 CD, SPECIAL PACKAGE

Our first full length at Lejos Discos: 14 tracks that define the boundaries between ambient, electronica and soundtrack music.

"Dreams made of paper", Miguel Marín's 2nd album as Arbol, is a melancholic work, motivated by the loss of someone dear. Yet it is also full of hope, full of life, as clear beams of light seeping through the leaves of trees to illuminate the darkest moments of life. One of the main virtues of this work by Arbol is the perfect combination of digital and natural resources. From the magnificent artwork by Queralt Antú Serrano -who has also made the videoclip inspired by Salvador Dalí included in the CD- to the collaborations of Suzy Mangion (George) and Eugenie Garreth as singers, all the different pieces within "Dreams made of paper" shine in this particular path along a world of dreams.
